BUILDING AN INTERNATIONAL PROFILE

EXCHANGE PATHWAYS

Our exchange programs allow international students to complete one or two semesters of study in Colombia while earning credits for the degree at their home institution.

We have designed two pathways to help our international students to make the most of their stay in Cali:

A. DOING BUSINESS IN LATIN AMERICA:

This program enables students to know, understand and experience the distinctive characteristics of business in Latin America and how to create competitive advantages through experimental learning. Students have access to a 12-credit package of courses including: International strategy, consultorio empresarial*, Intercultural management and negotiation techniques.

*Course offered in Spanish

B. INNOVATIVE BUSINESS MODELS:

This program is based on the three pillars: creativity, innovation and entrepreneurial thinking, allowing the students to develop and strengthen their innovative and leadership skills.

Students have access to a 12-credit package of courses including: Negocios digitales and Proyectos de innovación colaborativa, both offered in Spanish.

INTERNATIONALIZATION OPPORTUNITIES

We are committed to fostering our international presence through a diverse portfolio of global experiences for students and faculty, alongside the expansion of international research networks.

INCOMING MOBILITY:

Experience a life-changing academic journey at Pontificia Universidad Javeriana Cali. We offer flexible options that allow international students to explore our region while enrolling in a diverse selection of courses available in both Spanish and English.

OUTGOING MOBILITY:

Expand your academic horizons with an international experience. The School of Economics and Business Administration offers a wide network of partner universities around the world, providing students with diverse opportunities to study abroad.

Each semester, students can apply through the International Academic Semester (SAI) program. Stay informed about application periods and deadlines to take the next step in your global journey.

DOUBLE DEGREES:

Expand your global academic experience through our bi-directional double degree programs. At the undergraduate level, students can pursue double degrees with Montpellier Business School, FGES – Université Catholique de Lille, and Universidad de Monterrey. At the graduate level, we offer double degree opportunities with IQS School of Management in Barcelona, strengthening the international academic and professional outlook of our students.

SHORT TERMS:

Our short-term programs combine academic learning with practical experiences, including visits to public and private organizations related to each course. These programs allow students to explore different perspectives while immersed in an international environment, with popular themes such as Doing Business in Latin America, Innovation and Entrepreneurship.

HOW TO APPLY

The application to the Exchange program application is organized in three simple steps:

1. If the student comes from a partner university, he/she must be nominated by the home university and meet their exchange program requirements to be eligible for the program.

2. Check the academic options at Javeriana Cali and match them with the requirements at the home university.

3. Required documentation:

Nomination letter (Home University)

- Recommendation letter

- Motivation Letter

- Application Form

- Transcripts of records

- Learning Agreement

- Passport Copy

- Intermediate level of Spanish B1 (Home university or international test must certify Spanish proficiency).

- Medical insurance: International students must have a health insurance prior to their arrival at Javeriana Cali.

It must be valid throughout the student's whole stay in Colombia and must cover repatriation costs and include personal liability insurance.

Please note that non-Spanish speakers must take Spanish as Foreign Language as an academic course during the semester

We work very close with our International Affairs Office (Oficina de Relaciones Internacionales) and all the applications to our school will be processed through them.
