ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Academic calendar

Every semester has a duration of 18 weeks and is scheduled in the following way:

- Semester 1: January - June
- Semester 2: July – December

Academic calendar

Academic credits

In one semester an international student should take courses for approximately 18 Colombian credits.

One (1) academic credit is equivalent to 48 hours of work distributed as follows: 16 hours of lectures and 32 hours of independent study (class preparation, reading, etc.).

* For reference: 1 European credit (ECTS) is equivalent to 1.5 Colombian credits.

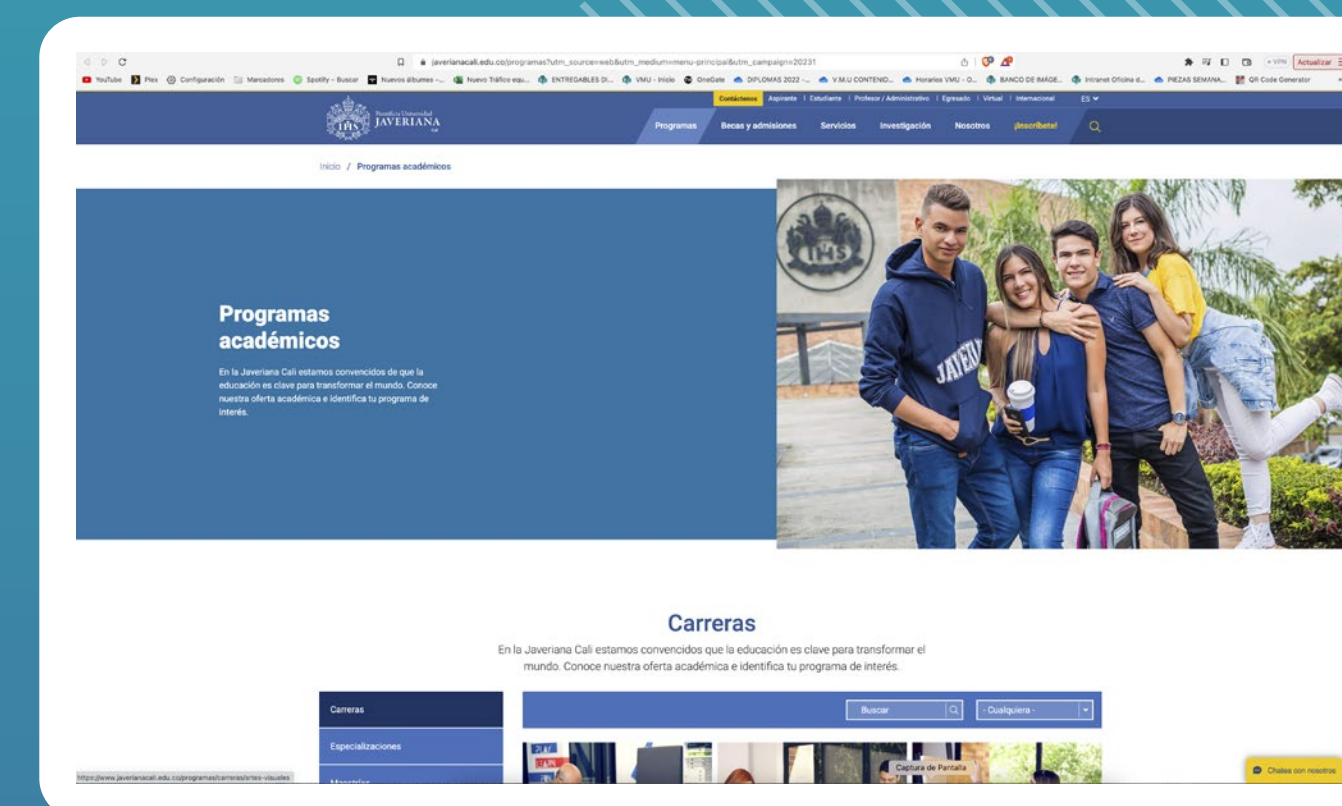

Recommended academic workload

Students should register a minimum of 3 subjects and a maximum of 6. They can choose subjects from different programs but we recommend choosing at least 3 courses from the same program.

ABOUT THE STAY IN CALI

Admission and stay in Colombia

Students who will be in Colombia for more than 180 days (6 months) must apply for a visa type "V".

For information about the requirements and visa process, the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Colombia (www.cancilleria.gov.co) or a Colombian consulate close to the respective city of origin can be consulted.

For those nationalities that do not require a Colombian visa, at the moment of entering the country, the student must receive a stamp in the passport with the "PID Entry Permit". This permit is valid for a stay of up to 180 days.

Which nationalities need a visa?

Health insurance

Students are responsible to acquire medical insurance with comprehensive international coverage, repatriation due to accidents, illness or death, and civil liability to third parties. We recommend that the students familiarize themselves with the terms and conditions of their insurance prior to arrival.

Accommodation

Javeriana Cali does not offer own accommodation. However, the International Office provides information about different options for international students close to the campus. The options range from private rooms in family homes to independent apartments. Another option is Inside by Boho offering shared student apartments.

Which aspects of the exchange experience were the most valuable?

América Rodríguez

from the University of Guadalajara (Mexico):

"The support I received at Javeriana University from the very first day of class and throughout the semester, and the high quality of professors who guided me through my coursework."

Hasham Salim Chaudry

from IÉSEG School of Management (France):

"Getting to know and explore Colombia and learning Spanish. Certain courses provided a point of view different from the European point of view, which allowed a better understanding of the challenges of the region."
